

HOW TO GET RID OF CHRONIC DANDRUFF

The only sure way to get permanently rid of either oily or dry dandruff is to remove the conditions that cause it and then keep the hair and scalp in a permanent, clean, healthy, vigorous state so dandruff will never return. This means shampoos or head washes which merely drive away dandruff for a few days at most. Wilfred F. Root and others of the better druggists in this vicinity are now strongly recommending a harmless, inexpensive and quick acting preparation called Parisian Sage that they say is guaranteed to act directly on the cause of dandruff and which already has become known far and wide as a safe and efficient treatment which cannot possibly injure hair or scalp.

Here is a test worth trying. Get a package of Parisian Sage. Rub a little of it into the scalp with the finger tips and see for yourself how the dandruff disappears, the hair stops falling out, the itching vanishes, and a new and vigorous healthy appearance comes over the hair. Good looking hair is half the battle in any man's or woman's personal appearance and nothing hurts the hair more than dandruff. Try a little Parisian Sage and begin at once to be rid of it.

PARENTS Who Is to Blame?

Before you find fault with your children for low marks at school, make sure that you yourself are not to blame. No child can be expected to study well with weak, tired eyes. The only safe way is to have your children's eyes tested at regular intervals. We have made a specialty of caring for children's eyesight, and you will find our prices moderate and our work dependable. Begin the New Year right by making sure that your children's eyes are in shape to stand the strain of study next term.

ROBERT MCLEAN of Chicago, former national amateur ice skating champion, who recently turned professional, is in New York trying to arrange a world's championship race with Christian Mathewson of Norway, holder of European skating honors. WAS STAR TWIRLER UNTIL LAST YEAR

Ray Collins One of Few to Jump from Small College to Big League Ranks—Feat Against Tigers.

Ray Collins, whose retirement from baseball was announced yesterday in a statement by him in Rutland, was one of the very few college players who have been good enough to jump directly from a small college team into the ranks of big league baseball and make good at once. Collins entered the University of Vermont in 1905 and for four years was the star pitcher of that team, winning 37 of 50 games he twirled in that time.

He went directly to the Boston American team after his graduation in 1909. His work improved each season, until last year, and he was ranked for five years as one of the best left handed pitchers in the business. He always had the Detroit team at his mercy and near the close of the 1914 season he startled the baseball world by pitching and winning two games from the Tigers in one afternoon. Since that notable feat he has never shown his old-time form.

BAILEY THROWS VOGEL.

Brattleboro Man Wins Match in Greenfield in Two Falls.

In a fast wrestling match at Greenfield last evening George W. Bailey of Brattleboro, 225 pounds, twice threw B. Vogel, 220 pounds. The first fall was secured in 10 minutes with a flying mare, and the second with a body scissors and a bar arm hold. It had been announced that Bailey was to wrestle William Berner.

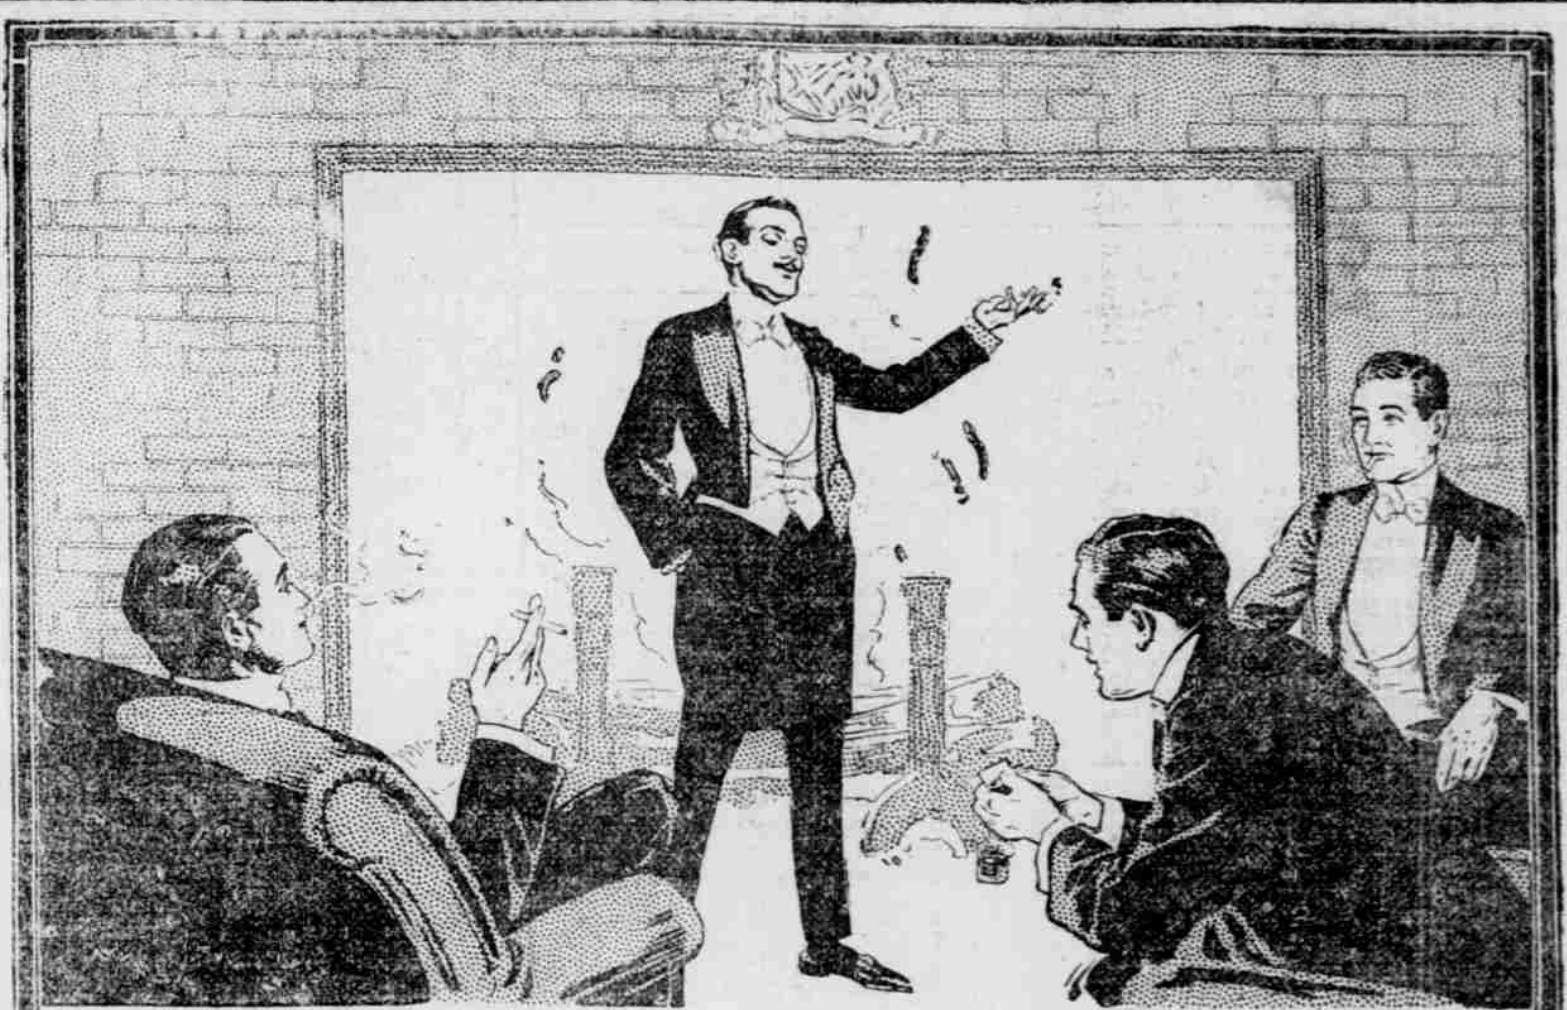

Sporting Notes.

The ride team of the University of Vermont stood seventh in the first of a series of 12 rifle matches just begun by teams from 39 colleges and universities. The Vermont team scored 972 out of a possible 1,000 points. Washington State led with 999.

Although Roger Bresnahan has been deposed by Weegman as manager of the Cubs in favor of Joe Tinker, he is not badly off. Weegman has offered him the Cleveland American league club for transfer to Toledo, Bresnahan's home town, and will help finance the deal.

Weegman, the new owner of the Cubs, appears to have rather subsantial backing. He names as the three men who are interested with him, J. Ogden Armour, rather well known as a meat packer; William Wrigley, whose gum is chewed by every stenographer and by men who have sworn off smoking; and "one of the biggest bankers in the city," to quote Mr. Weegman.

Once more Jess Willard is signed up for a fight with Frank Moran. This time it is for a 10-round affair in New York and the time is indefinitely announced as between April 10 and 22. Willard is to receive $32,500 as his share with the privilege of 45 per cent of the total gate receipts. Moran has not yet signed, but if he is offered any reasonable amount there is no doubt that he will sign the agreement.

The Brisk Smoke—"Bull" Durham

When you see an alert-looking young man in a lively argument roll a "Bull" Durham cigarette—it's the natural thing. He likes to punctuate a crisp sentence with a puff of "Bull". A cigarette of "Bull" Durham just fits in with keen thinking and forceful action.
